

Williams' Valley

Look up:

William Sherkey Williams - Mt. Man = "Billy" Williams
→ Thos S Williams - Provo Pioneer
Alexander Williams

Copyright 1995 by Grolier Electronic Publishing, Inc.

William's Valley

Williams, William Sherley (1787-1849)

One of the mountain men who trapped and explored in the American West, William Sherley Williams, b. Rutherford County, N.C., June 3, 1787, served as an interpreter and guide for various U.S. government surveying expeditions. He moved near St. Louis in 1794, and at the age of 16 he went to live among the Osage Indians for 25 years. During this time Williams, known as Old Bill, served as government interpreter and scout. Beginning in 1824 he spent much of his time trapping in the southern Rockies. Later he was a guide on the 1845 and 1848 expeditions of John C. Fremont. On Mar. 21, 1849, Williams was ambushed and killed by Indians.

Elliott West

Bibliography: Favour, A. H., Old Bill Williams, Mountain Man (1936; repr. 1962).

References 1. Family History Library for Red. & FGS
on Wm Sherkey Williams & parents; & Thos S Williams;
& Alexander Williams.

2. Grolier Electronic Publishing, Inc. 1995

3. Nothing in 1980 World Book

Williams' Valley

History of Williams - Mt. Man - Billy Williams
- Price History

Reference is Family History Library for Feb. 1972
and Genealogy Williams & Parents & their Williams
by Alexander Williams
in Genealogical Publishing, Inc. 1972
History in 1970 South Brook

Williams, William Sherley

One of the mountain men who trapped and explored in the American West, William Sherley Williams, b. Rutherford County, N.C., June 3, 1787, served as an interpreter and guide for various U.S. government surveying expeditions. He moved near St. Louis in 1794, and at the age of 16 he went to live among the Osage Indians for 25 years. During this time Williams, known as Old Bill, served as government interpreter and scout. Beginning in 1824 he spent much of his time trapping in the southern Rockies. Later he was a guide on the 1845 and 1848 expeditions of John C. Fremont. On Mar. 21, 1849, Williams was ambushed and killed by Indians.

Elliott West

Bibliography: Favour, A. H., Old Bill Williams, Mountain Man (1936; repr. 1962).